New Sermon Series: 'The Transforming Power of Prayer'

While Covid-19 forces us to stay isolated, we are never isolated from God through prayer. Perhaps now is a good time to revitalise your prayer life and realise once again the transforming power of prayer!

May 24	Part One: Prayer Transforms Me 'Prayer and self-discovery'	Psalms 139:1-18
May 31	'Prayer is not...'	Luke 18:9-14

Covid-19 Announcement

Although all of our services have been cancelled until further notice, we will do our best to keep in contact with you through weekly Prayer Triplet phone calls and check-ups. An on-line audio of the sermon will be available by 10:30am each Sunday. Finally, let me remind you that without our Sunday church services, the usual income we receive from offertories will quickly drop. If you are able, please give your offertory by direct debit using the banking details below:

A Prayer for Self-Discovery

Dear Heavenly Father,

I come to you in prayer to discover more about who I am and for the ability to trust You to shape me into who You want me to be. Help me to quietly sit at Your feet and to listen to Your Word. I pray that I will be able to see myself in the way that You see me, for Your word says that "I am fearfully and wonderfully made". Your word also says that everything created by You is good and that nothing is to be rejected. Help my eyes to see, Lord. Give me the courage to walk in the ways that You have chosen for me. Direct me away from trying to be like anyone else. Forgive me, God for comparing myself and mimicking after anyone else. I know You have specific gifts and a specific purpose just for me. Lord, show me my gifts. Reveal in me the presence of your Son in whose image I am being restored!

In Jesus name I pray. Amen.
